No one has ever been in the worstest mood than God that day. For 5 days ~~everything~~ has been OK: a spheric Earth looked simple and elegant, flowers were beautiful, animals - pretty and lovely, especially crocodiles. Today, however, ^{literally} everything went wrong. In the morning God grabbed some dusty soil from his favourite garden and shaped an animal. It was pretty like a monkey, but without a tail, a little bigger and with long white fur. The animal was supposed to be a Human, an entirely new creature having a soul, ^{capable of} and speech. When God was preparing to breath life into his creature, a cat jumped onto his working table and a parrot sat onto his table and ate speech. "You, silly bird! Give it back to me!" - cried God - "It's for a Human!" The parrot could not answer, think, as he didn't. God had already put the mind into Human's head, but he could speak and he said: "Silly bird!" - and ~~flew~~ ^{flew} away. God was sad and distracted and ~~blew~~ ^{blew} he ~~breathed~~ ^{blew} life into the Human. He opened eyes, but couldn't say anything. The only sound which his mouth could produce was "Ieti!" God decided to create another Human. But he had no more fur. Human turned out naked and ^{plus} ugly. When the first beautiful Human saw his naked brother, he got frightened, ~~a~~ cried Iety "Ieti!" and fled into ~~the mountains~~ away. Naked Human God couldn't find him and gave up this idea. Soon he created an ugly ^{naked} woman of the ~~Human's~~ ribbon. Human lived and his wife lived, and their children also. And in the mountains ^{still lives} lived a beautiful white-furred Ieti, fear full of ugly humans.
