Just when demographers are ringing alarm bells about over population, Amazon founder Jeff Bezos says we need to repopulate our Solar system. Mr. Bezos was asked for his thoughts on humanity living in outer space in a thousand years time. He replied: "I'd love to see you know a trillion humans living in the solar system. If we had a trillion humans we would have at any given time 1000 Mozarts and 1000 Einsteins. Space would be full of life and intelligence and energy." He added that he wants to help "build heavy infrastructure that will be used by the space entrepreneurs of future generations so that ingenuity and imagination really be unleashed".

Mr. Bezos' thoughts are echoed by fellow multi-billionaire Elon Musk, owner of X (formerly known as Twitter). In 2021, he said of the human race: "We don't want to be one of those single-planet species; we want to be a multi-planet species". Earlier this year, Mr. Musk warned that "population collapse due to low birth rates is a much bigger risk to civilization than global warming... Mark my words." Mr. Bezos conceives of people living in giant space stations. He said most inhabitants of these would visit Earth for vacations. He envisions our planet returning to its pristine environment as factories would be built in space. He said they would exploit resources on the Moon or on asteroids instead of using Earth's.

In a vibrant coastal town, Zoe, a young chef with an extraordinary talent, thrived. Fascinated by exotic flavors, she dedicated her life to creating innovative dishes, her skills far surpassing those of her traditionalist colleagues.

On one brisk ~~mon~~ morning, Zoe embarked on a spontaneous quest for culinary inspiration. Driven by her passion for unique ingredients, she explored local markets and remote fishing villages. She wandered through bustling bazaars, her senses alight with an array of spices and fresh seafood. Her search brought her to a hidden cove at dawn, just as the fishermen brought in their early catch.

There, Zoe discovered a rare fish, its flavor unlike anything she had ever tasted. This discovery ignited a burst of creativity: the ocean's bounty was exhilarating, but there were unexpected Finds that truly inspired her. Zoe's culinary adventures blending ~~with~~ traditional techniques with avant-garde tastes soon became legendary, inspiring others to explore and embrace ~~the~~ diverse flavors of the world.

1. Alaska is one of the last places in the Americas to be colonized by Europeans. The first colonies there were established by Russia in the 18th century. Alaska was sold ~~to~~ to the US a century later.
2. California is the center of the West Coast. It is a former Mexican territory which was seized by the US during the Mexican-American war in the 1840s. The largest cities of California are San Francisco and Los Angeles.

3. Florida is known to be a state infested with all sorts of swamp animals, such as alligators. It is due to most of the state's territory being covered in swamps. It is also a former Spanish colony.

4. Hawaii was an independent kingdom in the 1800s. Most of the islands' inhabitants always were Polynesians, whose culture is widespread on the islands today. The famous attack on Pearl Harbor also happened here.

5. Louisiana is a former French colony named after Louis XIV. It was sold to the US by Napoleon in the early 1800s. Since then the descendants of French colonists have formed a sizeable chunk of the state's population.

A group of gentlemen were trying to court a woman. On one evening she brought several candle holders and asked the gentlemen to find some candles. The men quickly scattered around the town trying to find whatever candles they could. In a few minutes the men had gathered all the required ~~hand~~ candles. Each gentleman inserted a candle into its place until there were no available holes left. The woman then remembered that she only needed 10 candles - but there were 11 gentlemen. The last man holding a candle looked at her with round eyes and fell to the floor, the candle flying out of his hands and landing directly in the woman's hands. Oh I know where to put that" - said the woman slowly lighting the candle and placing it into the ~~unconscious~~ unconscious man's hands.

The room was silent for a minute, each of the gentlemen staring at the seemingly lifeless body. Then suddenly, a loud scream filled the room: the hot melting wax has touched the man's hands, quickly bringing him back into conscious ness. He then proceeds to furiously chase all the men around the table, throwing candles at them while being covered in wax. What a night it was!
