Nowadays many teenagers spend their days ~~in~~ looking at phone screens too much. The day of a teenager contains 10% being online ~~in a laptop~~, 10% playing videogames and 10% chatting ~~with~~ friends on the phone. Overall, a regular teenager spends third time of their day online as much as sleeping. This might cause several problems with mental and physical health. One of them is decreasing the level of eyesight. Many teenagers now wear glasses or lenses because they spend too much time looking in the ~~screen~~ screen. A solution to this problem might be reducing screentime, ~~or simply not looking at phone during the~~

Being online too much may also be harmful for psychological health. Some teenagers have an obsession with gadgets and always look at them ~~th~~. That has some adverse effects on mental health.

As the result, teenagers should replace time spent in gadgets with sport or board games, otherwise gadgets might negatively impact ~~all~~ many spheres of their ~~it~~ lives.
