a) I was walking along a forest path. Suddenly I heard a branch cracked behind my back. I turned around and saw a big bear ~~staring~~ gawking at me. I felt my body getting covered with goosebumps. I was scared, my face was soaked with cold sweat. I felt my heart skipped a beat. I decided to run. I heard the bear running behind me. I stopped and fell on the ground pretending to be dead. The bear has gone away.

b) This I have learnt a lot from this story. The most important thing is that panicing is never a good idea. Now I know what a real fear is. That story gives me jitters every time I tell it. Now I know what to do if a bear attacks you.

The UK is a constitution monarchy and it is governed within a democracy.

The current monarch is King Charles II.

In practice, the monarch doesn't take a huge part in the government's work, he or she just gets monthly written reports from the prime-minister.

The House of Lords is composed of elected by the members of the Royal Family.

The number of members in the House of Lords is about 350.

The members of the House of Commons
are elected by the people members.

The House of Parliament is the real governing body of the UK.
