Вариант 2.

Task 1.

Answer: deliberate, apartment, to import.

Task 2:

Episode one:

Suddenly, I saw a big puma crawling towards me. It tried to be quiet and hardly noticeable, slowly going to my placement.

I was so shocked that I started shaking, scared for my life. I felt like I was going to faint anytime.

Despite my panick, I tried to calm down and come up with a solution. I decided to hide on a nearby tree, hoping that the animal would leave.

To my astopishment, puma did not try to attack me, but instead it ran to the forest. I was breathing heavily, completely shocked by the situation. As soon as I climbed down the tree, I decided to go home and never visit this place alone.

Episode two:

While I was climbing a hill, I suddenly heard a strange noise. ~~It sounded inhuman~~ coming from the deep forest. It sounded inhuman, loud and long.

I felt anxious because I was alone in the depth of the gloomy forest. I was scared even to imagine the appearance of such horrifying voice.

I looked around, seeking for the origin of this sound when I saw a big owl, hiding in the shadow of the massive branches.

I was enchanted by its big yellow eyes which were piercingly staring right at me. I was no longer scared, now I enjoyed the creature's company. I will sure never forget that stroll which was filled with mystery and surprises.

Episode three:

I noticed something bright and colorful on the rocky cliff while I was climbing a hill. When I focused my vision, I realised that it was a flower.

I was in a state of pure shock, because that flower was rather rare! I'd only seen it in books before, so I felt the luckiest ~~person~~ person alive!

I fought against the urge to take it with me because I really wanted to have it in my collection of flowers. I decided to take a photo of it.

I was on the cloud nine till the end of the stroll. I felt truly happy and lucky, because this discovery made that stroll rather precious and special. I will be unlikely to forget ~~this~~ hiking and I'll definitely share it with my close ones.

① "One" is true because it was mentioned in the text that the word "greenwashing" became popular only in the 1980s.

② "Two" is true because it is said in the text that "greenwashing" means that companies pretend to be greener than they actually are to attract customers.

④ "Four" is false because the phrase "fast fashion" means that products which are made of eco-friendly materials tend to wear out quickly.

- ⑥ "Six" is false because the phrase term "sustainable" can only refer to such products in a form of the phrase "sustainably-sourced materials".
- ⑦ "Seven" is true because "greenwashing" is beneficial for many companies: it attracts customers, improves their image and increases their profits.
- ⑧ "Eight" is true because if you recognize "greenwashing" you will become a better consumer and encourage companies and governments to be more honest in their policy.
