Вариант 2.

1. attention, apartment, to import.

2. a) Suddenly, I noticed something moving in the bush. It was making chewing noises and was probably inspecting a new comfortable cover, found under the plant's ~~leaf~~ leaves.

At first, it made my heart skip a beat because of its contrast with the quietness of nature. But then I became more invested and curiosity won the common sense.

I slowly closed the distance with the bush and knelt in front of it. Between the branches I saw a small ~~animal~~ animal hiding something in the soil.

b) The day of the stroll was one of the best days of the last month. It brightened my tiring daily-routine with positive emotions. Some mesmerising views opened from the top of the hill. It was nice to finally ~~spend~~ spend some time in peace, away from the city life.

1) False. The word became popular in the 1980s. Forty years is quite a long time. ~~Text says~~ ~~that~~ that the word became popular, which may mean it had appeared even before.

2) True. People want to help world's environment and buy more 'green' products. Greenwashing is a marketing practice when companies lie or exaggerate about being eco-friendly.

3) Not Given

4) False. 'Fast fashion' refers to fashion industry's overall business model ~~when~~ when garments become extremely popular but its popularity doesn't last for long and people buy more clothes.

5) Not Given

6) False. The term 'sustainable' refers to products that are made ~~from~~ with resources that can be easily provided by nature in unlimited amounts without damaging it.

7) Not Given

8) It is said in text that young adults, being the next wave of consumers, have the power to inspire real change and help protect our planet. True.

9) False. Text says that companies began to showcase their 'eco-friendly' practices and policies to attract customers, improve their image and increase their profits. It means that it promotes their profits.

10) Not Given
