Task 1. Answer: attention, ~~apartment~~, ~~to postpone~~, ~~deliberate~~, apartment₂.

Task 2. a)

I was climbing a hill. Suddenly, I heard a quiet cry, full with sadness and pain. It seemed that a little child was crying, calling someone.

Firstly, I felt horrified: "What ~~is~~ if the child's ~~was~~ in trouble? What if I'm ^{also} in danger?" But then I remembered: I have to be braver. And confidence arrived to me.

I ~~afastened~~. Finally, I saw a little girl crying. She saw me and said she was lost. So, I helped her get ^{back} home. She was so pleased about it!

Task 3.

1. False. In the text it's said that the word "greenwashing" became popular in 1980s. Now it's 2025, so 45 years isn't a long term.

2. True. According to the text, "... greenwashing happens when people promote their products or policies as environmentally friendly..." (when they ^{actually} aren't), so promotion can be called a marketing practice.

3. True. According to the text, one of the main goals of "Conscious Collection" is "... to use only 100% recycled... materials...". ~~As this organization~~ ^{Many} critics say this idea is followed to often, and ^{as the result} "... the fashion industry's overall business model of "fast fashion" leads to unpleasant consequences.

4. False. ~~As in the text it's said that~~ ^{According to the text,} "... "fast fashion" leads to more consumerism, massive use of energy and natural resources, and waste". ^{Fast fashion's} ~~we can say that it's~~ about ~~not just shopping online~~ ^{clothes} but massive shopping ~~of it~~ ^{when} offline and or of online.

5. Not given.

6. True. According to the text, "100% recycled or materials can be also changed for, sustainably-sourced materials", which means they're all artificial materials the clothes are made from.

7. ^{False} True. According to the text, "... most of the world's big companies ... try to demonstrate that they are eco-friendly..." ~~That means~~ some of big companies and also small ones don't do that.

8. True. According to the text, "... by understanding greenwashing we can ~~promote~~ ^{support} companies ~~a better world and~~ that genuinely aim for a greener future". So, as we're the consumers

8. True. As we're the consumers, according to the text, we ~~"can become better cons"~~ "... encourage companies and governments to be more honest in their approach. ^uBy ~~understanding greenwashing~~, we can... support companies that... "genuinely aim for a greener future", which ~~u~~ want to be truly eco-friendly.

9. False. ~~Acco~~ As "... "fast fashion" leads to more consumerism...", companies' eco-friendliness promotes their profits well, and people are ~~with~~ willing to buy their products.

10. ~~Not sta~~ Not given.
