Task 1

Adult, to export, import.

Task 2

1 episode.

There was a good summer day when I was walking along a forest path. Suddenly I heard some gun shooting sounds.

At that moment I was in panic, I was shocked. Some time after I became ~~more~~ chillier than before, because of a knowledge that I'm safe. What about actions? I started retreating from the forest, because I was scared. Then, after retreating, I called my parents and police.

2 episode.

There was a good summer day when I was walking along a forest path. Suddenly I heard a scream. Firstly I was scared, because it's terrific to hear a scream in the forest. But after that I felt a wave of bravery.

What about actions? I was trying to understand the scream's direction, then I decided to check that place and help to a person.

3 episode.

There was a good summer day when I was walking along a forest path. Suddenly I ~~has~~ saw a cave.

Firstly, I was curious. My emotions were arguing with each other. I was shocked that here, in forest, you can easily find a cave. What about actions? I decided not to go down, but I took a photo of the ^{exit} cave, and then tell about it to my classmates.

b) Summary impression is quite mixed, because here I wrote about three different situations. A small walk along a forest path can cause many situations and emotions, people humans' emotions ~~are~~ don't have borders. As for me, emotions like anger, love, here, in forest, you can find a lot of animal and plant species, many dangerous and peaceful situations.

Task 3

- 1) True, because human activity began influencing on climate since the industrial revolution. In historical borders it was not a long time ago, but still the influence has a place.
- 2) False. Here, in text, we can read about rising sea level, but not as a result of cooling down. Carbon dioxide warms our planet, not cool it.

- 3) Not given
4) False. Trees don't release carbon dioxide after cutting. Tree absorb it with releasing of oxygen, so cutting the tree is a way to destroy oxygen producers.
5) True, in text we can find a statement, in which is said, that personally you can change a situation too, if you change your car to a public transport.
6) Not given
7) False. Business should be responsible for following guide lines too. In text we have one statement about it, also they need to start international ecological cooperation.
8) True, climate change has already affected on ecosystems and communities worldwide, - was said in text, and it's understandable, because climate change becomes an international problem.
9) False, text says, that ecological education is necessary for future generations and even us, it is essential and necessary. Climate change should be known by every human.
10) Not given

Task 4

- 1) 1.1) Conditionals.
1.2) If it rains, we will take our umbrellas.
2) 1) Past Perfect Tense
2.2) He had done our project before we came to him.

3) 3.1) Present Continuous Tense.

3.2) ~~We will visit our grandparents~~

We are visiting our grandparents next Tuesday.

Task 5.

- 1) am in the red
- 2) ran out of time
- 3) on the borderline
- 4) am snowed under.

Task 6.

- 1 - C, Quote 2
- 2 - B, Quote 3
- 3 - A, Quote 1

Task 7.

- 1) Absolute monarchy - parliamentary monarchy or constitutional monarchy
- 2) within liberal democracy - british political arena consists of liberals, conservatives and labourists
- 3) king Richard - king Charles the Third has
- 4) Monarch takes a huge part in work - In reality, monarch is being just a do-lure part in government's work.
- 5) House of Lord is being choosed by the members of royal family
- 6) House of commons being choosed by people.
- 7) Scotland has its own parliament.

8) Parliament is not an executive power.
The role of parliament is to create new laws.
