VARIANT I

TASK 1

Adult, to export, import

TASK 2

I was walking through the forest that day... While I was enjoying the atmosphere around, I've suddenly heard an animal scream and saw a motion in the grass nearby.

I was scared. It could be an aggressive, wild animal, for instance, bear and I won't win him. My heartbeat became faster and I ~~couldn't~~ couldn't do anything with that.

However, I've started thinking quite rationally and slowly ~~moving~~ moved back. The sounds became louder. It made me to go faster. The grass started waving again and...

The rabbit jumped over me, ran somewhere and left me alone. I was surprised and a bit shocked. Well, I felt myself better because I was safe. I've decided to go back and I was laughing during all the way. I realised I should be more careful and braver.

Statement 1 - False, because the industrial age was mentioned in the second sentence when climate changes began. The industrial age began in the XVIII-XIX century so this is NOT recently.
