T2

(a)

I Once upon a time I was taking a stroll on the forest + path, when I saw a small bird fall out of a nest.

II I felt fear for the safety of the bird — after all, it was too young to be able to get back up on its own.

III I picked up the bird and put it back into the nest, and made sure to be careful enough to not hurt it.

d) This stroll remains in my memory ever since as an example of me acting adequately to assist someone in need of urgent help. It is always important to know how to act in time, ~~fearful you might end up saving~~ ~~someone's life~~ because you can never know if you'll save somebody, even a bird.
