Reduce The Speed

The advertisement "Reduce The Speed" and similar ones are pretty ubiquitous nowadays. You can see them on banners and billboards next to roads and highways.

The main purpose of this advertisement is to persuade drivers who go too fast or even don't follow speed limits to slow down. Sometimes people ignore them, which is something they mustn't do.

Going too fast may cause serious troubles (car accidents, for instance) and drivers should keep that in mind while driving. Just a hire doesn't scare them anymore, but they must care for the passengers and family that is in the car.
