Paragraph 2.

If only Oliver had analysed this proposal, he would realised that a chance like this could be once in a blue moon. Last time he had felt that he was in one's element was about two years ago. So why Oliver was in doubts? Just because the lack of sustainability was scary for him. The final straw was his willing to take a risk and start a new life.

Paragraph 4.

All night Oliver was in his bed, thinking: "I have been earning for a half of my life to make ends meet. I did not even imagine how different can be work. And now I have a great opportunity to change everything. By and large, I want to move from my pathetic office!". Never before had he accepted such an offer. Now it is time! So, let's move on.

Paragraph 6.

Remembering his school years, Oliver has been analysing that he was not self-confident in his decisions. Some teachers and classmates did not trust him. Why is he always relying on people's judgements and opinions? He should try to take advantage of any possibilities. From now on, he ~~will~~ will feel reluctant of allowing push people to control his feelings. And his life will be much better.

Task 5.
