Task 4.

2. These email was a job offer. Oliver thought that things like that happens once in a blue moon because he has never been in situations like that before. Once, he heard his coworker's speech:

Last week I got a job offer. If I had accepted it, "I would have been rich." In current job Oliver was in his element but, of course, there were a final straw.

4. He opened his laptop and typed an answer to make ends meet: "I have been wondering for a long time, can I ask you some questions?" No sooner had he sent the letter he got a response: "What a pathetic person you are! We can meet tomorrow." Oliver was puzzled. The offer was by and large but he made a decision.

6. The next day he met his closest ^{reluctant} friend Frank. Oliver asked for advice. Frank replied: "You are always standing back and in pass. For example, do you remember your great work plan that you didn't show because of a shame?" Oliver answered: "Yes, I could have shown it..." After this meeting he decided to take advantages of life and, eventually, joined new team.
