Breakfasts are now being served
The latest huzz about breakfasts in b & b finally got its results. The government persuaded hotel owners to serve free breakfasts. It was said in the last magazine of FCN.

The bad part is that now hotels advertise
this feature! The add refers to all travelers, who want to have breakfast in the morning.

And lots of people actually took this into consideration because it seems like a great way to save money.

All in all, I recommend you to pay attention and be cautious about such offers because mostly, the free part is already included into overall bill.
