Paragraph 2

Clara was doubting whether she should accept or deny the invitation. She also decided to turn a blind eye and not question how her account has just been added to this group. Her parents ~~told her~~ said, that if they were, they would have already ~~accepted~~ agreed. Clara understood that sooner or later she had to make this decision even though at the back of her mind she wasn't ready.

Paragraph 4

After hearing that, she wanted to prove everyone that she did study a lot in order to get to a better university and didn't depend on her parents' money. Clara thought that they ~~must~~ had chosen her for her skills and because they ~~saw~~ had ~~seen~~ seen her potential. She decided to confirm the interest in one go, not to change her mind.

Paragraph 6

She was said that everyone must have thought of her as a person who took everything for granted. Little did they know, how hard she had been studying and this invitation was a rewarding coincidence for her work. Clara's straightforward friend told her that by the time she comes back, everyone will have forgotten their misunderstandings and Clara sighed with relief.
