Task 4

Paragraph 2.

One of the most successful companies had invited Oliver to be in its element and join the creators' team. And the final straw, it gave him the ~~possib~~ opportunity to travel the around the world. If he had ever dreamt of an active lifestyle, he wouldn't have thought twice. Though Oliver had always preferred silence, he realised that such opportunities come once in a blue moon.

Task 4.

Paragraph 4.

Thoughts were crawling restlessly in his head. His whole life he has been working quietly, never taking any risks. Hardly has he ever thought of anything like this after being possible. By and large, the longer he was thinking, the more pathetic he felt about his current job. Despite his hard work, he was trying his best to make ends meet.

Paragraph 6.

He was reluctant to admit but he enjoyed the conversation. He asked himself "Why am I always worrying about everything?" Oliver realised that he could have accepted many more risks in the past. He was confident and poised as he was signing the documents. It was not just a new job, but a new life for him where nobody would take advantage of him.
