Task 8

I've chosen the second advertisement for commenting.

This advertisement might be seen in gyms, PE-classes, stadiums and other places where sport equipment is definitely required. I think that it might refer to people who practice, play sports or work out in places that are meant for doing exercises and different sports.

People might take this advertisement into consideration because sport shoes serve as an important part in sport dresscode and they are mainly required for comfort and safety reasons. People should wear sport shoes in those places to make their exercising safer and more comfortable.
