Paragraph 2.

"If I hadn't been added to the chat, I wouldn't be feeling so anxious", Clara sighed. An image of a little girl who craved studying languages appeared at the back of Clara's mind. So she clicked the "submit the application" button. "Sooner or later, we'll know whom they chose, I better not turn a blind eye on it", said Clara. Some time has passed and the choice has been revealed.

Paragraph 4.

beating

Never in her life had Clara been so in rage as she was then. Her heart was ~~beating~~ at a hectic pace, she was on the verge of breaking down. Clara did want to prove herself, so she hacked into the classmates' accounts and deliberately deleted their applications. Just in one go, she took away their once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. Little did Clara know that her actions were being tracked.

Paragraph 6.

"I must have been so furious then", she apologised. "We forgive you, don't take it for granted, there's no explanation for what you've done", said the boys. The reply felt straightforward but also sincere. ~~Soon~~ Soon it will have been ten years since the incident. "It must have hit home...", said Clara's daughter, after her mother told the story. "Yes, but there's nothing more rewarding than forgiveness", concluded Clara.
