Paragraph 2.

Once in a blue moon, the email was about a new project. "New office, 10 days, don't meet the deadline!" - read Oliver and thought, it was the final straw. Next line was; "Our company offers flats in ~~China~~ China." Oliver thought, that if he ~~ever~~ had ever been in China, he would have been extremely happy. Oliver had read the email again, before told about it to everyone. So, Oliver perfectly knew Chinese.

Paragraph 4.

Surprisingly, never had Oliver such a terrible night. He had been thinking about his future career, before he fell asleep. Oliver felt pathetic about new opportunities, the biggest fear was to make ends meet. He never tried to live by and large, his character didn't allow him, thus he was shy a bit. However, he concluded, that his life should be changed.

Paragraph 6

Despite the absorbing meeting, Oliver found, that rules were reluctant. Anyway, he wanted to take advantage of the project. Oliver got a list with his tasks and responsibilities. "Translate international traders, perfectly know Japanese" - ~~slowly read~~ Oliver slowly read. "I am not shouting now. No stress, no push!" - ~~thought~~ He thought. Of course, Oliver wish he could know about Japanese earlier. ~~But now he~~ But above all, it was a brilliant opportunity.
