Paragraph 2.

The letter came from a local ~~sales ma-~~
~~agement~~ company. ~~It~~ ~~it~~ They had expressed interest in Oliver's credentials and offered him a test-term in their emerging daughter office. If he proves to be competent, they would hire him permanently.

The final straw was the position Oliver had long wanted but couldn't get. He thought about finally being at his element within the new team. It was a once in a blue moon chance.

Paragraph 4.

For many hours he has been pondering about the chance to go by and large. Accepting the proposal, he could switch from simply making his ends meet to increasing his working standards and fortune. Pathetic as the crippling fear of unknown caused him to feel, Oliver was yet only growing in his determination to take a risk for the first time.

Paragraph 6.

Despite his friends' advices and his own poshy principles, Oliver decided to take advantage of the opportunity.

After a year, his life changed: the dullness disappeared, making way for new experiences. When someone remembers his past, reluctant self, Oliver is now rolling his eyes and grima~~cing~~ing. If he started trying new things before, he could have advanced further in his career. Now he doesn't plan to miss out on life anymore.

Task 5.

1. Busybody - a person who's unnecessarily deeply involved in social life and is prone to gossiping about others.
2. To be poised to do something - to intend to do something or have something about to happen with high likelihood.
3. To agree to disagree - it is when parties in an argument do not come to a consensus, but remain faithful to their initial views.
4. Sluggish - slow, taking a lot of time, lazily moving like a slug (animal).
5. To pan out - to resolve in some, often initially intended way, or to turn out smoothly.

Task 6.

1. She has never experienced such pressure before.
2. I should have told you earlier.
3. It was his honesty that impressed me.
4. Had she known the truth, she would have reacted differently.
6. Although he was exhausted, he kept working.
5. The plan is believed to be unrealistic.
7. It was such a complicated task that few had completed it.

Task 7.

1. ~~Charles Darwin~~ ~~Is~~ Charles Darwin ~~was~~ ~~the~~ developed the theory of evolution by natural selection.

2. Albert Einstein did not discover the structure of DNA. It was ~~not~~ Marie Curie.

3. Maxwell is known for inventing the first practical telephone, not Marie Curie.

4. Isaac Newton was the first scientist to discover gravity.

5. He was also responsible for developing the first electrical engine.
