Task ④	Paragraph 2

It was a long letter inviting Oliver as an experienced physicist for the time-machine development and praising him. In physics Oliver was in his element and felt unconfident in his knowledge only once in a blue moon. ~~Also~~ He had never received such offer before and the compliments were the final straw that made him consider the offer proposal. Surely, he would have regretted if he had ignored the offer.

Paragraph 4

It was a night of reflection for him. For the past few years he has been living without big purpose, poor, barely making ends meet. ~~So~~ ^{Oliver} he realised that his existence could be described by and large as pathetic. So that night was fatal for him ~~because~~ he decided to change his life by accepting the offer. Little did he know how his life is going to improve. invitation and making a future decision.
