Paragraph 2

'Well, I have been tricked,' thought Clara and decided to turn a blind eye to the online group. However, at the back of her mind she was already planning to accept the invitation sooner or later as she was quite interested in the exchange programme. If such an invitation had come to her earlier and she had accepted it, she would now have a brilliant future.

Paragraph 3

After that, she Clara slept on the idea of the selective international exchange programme and was on the verge of declining the invitation as she did have ~~a~~ good future prospects already. However, the discussion she had heard at school made her hectic and she accepted the invitation in one go. Little did she know how the school would react.

Paragraph 6

Nevertheless, Clara concluded that her consent to the programme must have been a good decision and she would not take this chance for granted but → get the best of it. She was straightforward about everything, so her efforts promised to be rewarding. As for the rumors, by the end of the exchange programme she will have forgotten all of them.
