Paragraph 2

Oliver hesitated to open the message for a long time. Only after his mother questioned him, which was his final straw, did he dare reveal the contents. Overwhelmed with fear, Oliver read about the offer to take part in a group design project. He made such decisions once in a blue moon, but knew that while designing, he would be in his own element.

Paragraph 4

"Stop being pathetic!" Oliver ~~said~~ told himself. Making decisions is not the man's strong side. ~~Although~~ Although providing stability, at his workplace there was no room for personal growth. By and large, he was really struggling to ~~me~~ make ends meet and that was the ~~sole~~ reason for his ~~strug-~~ <sup>issues</sup> dull lifestyle.

~~He~~ Had he not thought everything through though, Oliver would have missed out on a life-changing opportunity.

Paragraph 6

It seemed like the speaker was taking advantage of the audience. Even though Oliver remained reluctant, he came to realise that taking risks is also key to success. He understood that all his life was dull <sup>posh</sup> and boring, so it requires urgent changing, but what can be done about the past? It is the future that Oliver can now fix by accepting the risk.

Task 5

1. A busybody refers to a talkative individual who is greatly interested in other people's business to a point of concern.

2. To be poised to do something is when an outcome is likely to occur, but not with complete certainty.

3. To ~~agree~~ disagree means that individuals with opposing opinions accept the existence of the other's perspective.

4. Sluggish refers to slow, weak or moderate progress made in a situation.

5. To pan out refers to the final outcome <sup>or resolution</sup> of a situation or event.
