Task 4.

Paragraph 2.

Liana had to turn a blind eye. Obviously, at first she wouldn't even consider going to a foreign country all on her own. But once she started binge watching videos related to various exchange programmes, ~~at~~ at the back of her mind something changed brutally. She understood that she should give it a try. She thought: "Sooner or later, I ~~would~~ have to face the real world".

Paragraph 4.

Liana felt how a hectic feeling crawled up inside her chest. Suddenly, her eyes turned red and puffy. Liana was on the verge of tears. She couldn't believe what she just heard, how could someone downgrade her like that. Liana took out her phone and in one go she applied for the exchange programme. Back then she ~~had~~ wouldn't have thought about the consequences to her actions, but she did it to prove everyone how wrong they were about her.

Paragraph 6.

Liana isn't a person who straight forward works out problems like this. After a while she took this situation for granted, without even trying to depend herself anymore, yet every night she still thinks what she must have done to avoid this burden. Ciana can't call her experience rewarding, but although she can't call it useless either. While driving towards her new school she concludes: "Who would've known it would turn out like this!"

Task 7.

4. Unfortunately she didn't have an opportunity to test her creation herself.
