Task 4.

Paragraph 2.

At the back of ~~editor's~~ ^{editor's} mind, there had already been such a ~~thought~~ ^{thought} of confirming her enthusiasm. It seemed she knew that sooner or later, she would definitely do it. Consequently, having turned the blind eye, she headed for it. Now she knows ~~that~~ ^{at once} she wouldn't apply for it ~~if~~ ^{if} she had been aware of the possible ~~consequences~~ consequences, although she has been told about them for ages.

Paragraph 4.

In fact, Clara hadn't realised what was wrong before she began noticing her classmates' strange behaviour. She did think that they might ~~be~~ have disrespected her due to dealing with scammers, as those mysterious people in online chat could be. She was on the verge of being depressed as all the other students acted weirdly in one go. Clara blamed herself on having made the hectic decision.

Paragraph 6

~~Then, all of a sudden,~~ ^{Suddenly} Shortly afterwards, Clara realised that she had forgotten ^{olympiad} ~~about having won the most prestigious olympiad, in her country.~~

The selective international exchange programme appeared to be extremely rewarding. She clearly understood that her classmates and teachers must have been jealous ~~and envy~~. She has always taken the respectful attitude towards herself for granted.

That's why ^{her} their behaviour discouraged Clara. ~~However now~~ she's ~~sure~~ ^{So} ~~the~~ key idea is straightforward — Clara will never have never recalled them all again.

Task 5

~~* If the person is level-headed, it means they're calm~~

~~1. If something is level or someone~~

1. If the person is ^{being} level-headed, ~~it~~ means ^{being} they're calm, practical and thoughtful (can mean either person's or thing's condition).

2. ~~Vicious circle~~ Vicious circle is an endless cycle of unavoidable and interlinked ~~process~~ processes or events.

3. A bugbear is quite similar to a burden — a problem that has long existed but can't be solved yet.
