Once in a blue moon he received a chance to be successful.

Paragraph 4.

Nothing else could he do except go outside. While walking he was thinking over all the events that took place previous year of his life. Oliver's girlfriend broke his heart, then his house was burnt by arsonists. He had been trying to make ends ~~met~~ meet within eight ~~no~~ months. After all, the offer was the most pathetic thing that could ever happen to him.

Paragraph 6.

Was it a mistake or a chance to make a career and surround himself with lucrative cars and expensive pieces of furniture? Oliver supposed the latter. He regretted that he could not be more determined in the past. Oliver realised: he was always trying to satisfy the will of others, not his! ~~He~~ So he decided to take advantage of this offer and make his life more exciting.
