Paragraph 2

Many thoughts were at the back of Clara's mind, "a mistake have been done. I can't be a participant. However, I've made a lot and fate, sooner or later, would have turned a blind eye on me. Actually, if I were more hardworking, I would have had no opponents now... wow, I need to calm down and not overreact. And, probably, confirm my interest."

Paragraph 4.

These mean words clearly did hurt her feelings. She was on the verge of crying and still felt hectic inside after such a morning. After returning home, Clara sat on the floor and recalled the events that had happened. "I must do all the tasks good and make a portfolio in one go. I will be the one, ~~not~~ selected for the exchange programme."

Paragraph 6.

"I must have been hardworking and straightforward, ~~is it bad?~~ and didn't take anything for granted, is it bad? By the end of next week, I'll have been in another country and they won't talk to me, but that's the other side of the medal." she was thinking, ~~and~~ until her phone vibrated. She saw rewarding "We are happy to invite you..." on the screen and sighed with a relief.

Task 5.

1) level-headed - to remain conscious, while analysing the situation and thinking critically.

2) vicious circle - a chain of unpleasant events that are hard to change or stop.

3) bugbear - a problem that is a burdensome and cannot be solved for a long time.

4) a tall order - a goal that seems hard and impossible but must be reached.

5) heyday - a start or a beginning of a process that is compared with present-day results.
