Task 4.

Paragraph 2.

Oliver was thinking about what would happen, if he had stopped avoiding risks. He had never been in such situations before, not even once in a blue moon. He was really bored, so it was the final straw. Then he decided to think about opportunity to be in that company's element. Company, that sent him ~~that~~ email, that could change his life.

Paragraph 4.

Oliver has been thinking about this offer all night. He had never cared about something, so it was really pathetic for Oliver to be aware of such things. It was hard for him to sleep for a few more days.

He made a call to company to make ends meet, because he couldn't live like this anymore, so he talked to his future team.

Paragraph 6.

It was the best decision he had ever done. He can do it earlier, but he didn't. It was his only regret. Oliver became new person. Now he is really annoyed by people, who are always avoiding risks. He is taking every advantage of life, that he is given. Every day he wants to do and explore new things. He loves his life!
