Task 4.

Paragraph 2.

Clara decided to tell her parents.
'I have been added to a strange group. Do you know anything about it?' asked Clara.
Clara's mother, at the back of her mind, remembered that 23 years ago she received a similar offer. She didn't approve but understood she would regret sooner or later. That's why she couldn't turn a blind eye if she would have had a chance to help her daughter.

Paragraph 4.

Clara was on the verge of her final decision but after this she was convinced that her mother had said the right thing. Clara confirmed her interest and told her parents about it in one go. She was hectic but at that moment Clara knew that she did want to go. Sooner all her classmates and teachers found it out.

Paragraph 6.

Clara told her mother that she must have made a wrong decision but her mother said: 'You will ~~finish~~ have <sup>been</sup> finish this exchange programme while your classmates will be at the same educational level. It is a very rewarding experience for your future career and you have to go straightforward to your dream and goals.' Clara thought she should take it for granted.
