Reduce speed now

I might ~~probably~~ see this advertisement on a highway where plenty of cars drive on daily basis. This advertisement will definitely catch almost every driver's eye. This advertisement might refer to every driver but mostly for ones who tend to disobey the speed limit restriction. People should take the advertisement into their consideration because driving too fast can lead to terrible consequences such as death or being disabled for the rest of your life. In addition, the amount of deaths from car accidents is increasing every day and one of the ways to prevent this is to reduce the speed.

Task 4

A: Anna, do you remember our vacation in Spain when you were 10?

B: Absolutely not. Why would I remember this? I'm 27 years old now. Can you tell me more about it?

A: Almost every member of our family remembers that trip to Spain but you. Don't you find that hilarious?

B: Ask our dad. I doubt he remembers that.

A: Alright, I will ask Kim and ~~prove~~<sup>proove</sup>
you wrong.

B: Arguing with me is the worst thing you ~~can~~ can imagine

A: Anger is your worst quality, Anna.

B: At least I am not as emotional
as you.
