Task 4.

2. ~~When he managed to find out what the~~ ^{once} ~~message said,~~ ^{one} ~~in a~~
Oliver received strange messages ^{once} ~~one~~ ^{in a} Blue moon, but this time ~~message said,~~ it came out that he was offered to participate in a huge renovative project launched by creative staff of his office whom he had never seen. They ^{spotted} noticed him for the true passion which was in his element. "Mad I worked harder, they would have noticed me earlier," thought Oliver, and this realization became the final straw.

4. Oliver was thinking about his life. "By and large, it is kind of pathetic: I work for most of the time ^{and} yet cannot even make ends meet! I have been doing the same job for years, probably, that is the success I was looking for?" were his overwhelming ~~the~~ ^{during} contemplations that ate-long night. Little did Oliver know that his lifestyle would dramatically change in the nearest future.

6. A few months later, Oliver was recalling those torturing moments of hesitation. "I wish I could have been less reluctant to change. My life hasn't become posh, but it is much more gripping how, though some drawbacks started to occur. For instance, my new colleagues are ~~some~~ taking advantage of my reliability, but I'm still a determined worker, who is happy as never!

Task 7.
