Task 4.

Paragraph 2: Oliver was offered to join a project, the aim of which was to develop a new source of receiving still water for poor countries in Africa. Once in a blue moon he had already received a ~~similar~~ similar offer but he had refused. At that time Oliver did not realize that if he had agreed, this decision would have altered his life immediately and made it significantly better.

Paragraph 4: Oliver realised that shortage of water was one of the main problems, so solving it was crucial for Africans and the entire world. Oliver has been dreaming about being useful for our society since his childhood. Therefore, more thought he about it, less doubts he had on account of this offer. Oliver made a decision to try to do it to make ends meet.

Paragraph 6: Oliver understood that he could take advantage of this cooperation but he still doubted. His life ~~became~~ would become unpredictable and Oliver would ~~get~~ get out of his zone of comfort. He reckoned and told himself in posh English ~~over~~ accent: "You are always avoiding risks. You cannot ~~or~~ have overcome your fears earlier but it is time to do it! Let's do it!". And Oliver joined this project.
