Paragraph 2.

Clara has been messaged by an organiser of the group. ~~He~~ ~~has~~ She's been told that if she ~~did~~ hadn't answered then she would get expelled from the group. The text has been ignored by Clara, ~~but~~ because she was afraid. Though at the back of her mind she has known that if she ~~had~~ turned a blind eye, she would have to answer sooner or later.

Paragraph 4.

~~Just like that Clara had discovered the truth. She had been infuriated by her classmates' ~~hypocrisy~~ egoism, so on the verge of ~~anger~~ rage she had answered the organiser in one go who did expect her to reply. Such a hectic move did have a huge impact on Clara's life ~~but~~. She had told her parents everything and went to school.~~

Just like that Clara had discovered the truth. Even though she did actually think she was safe, Clara had still been infuriated by her classmates' egoism. On the verge of rage she had answered the organiser in one go, who did expect her to reply. Such a hectic move did have a huge impact on Clara's life. The next day she had told her parents everything and went to school.

Paragraph 6

The classmates rumoured that Clara must've been the organiser's ~~girlfriend~~ lover or a niece and she took the place for granted. The girl has been bullied multiple times. Thankfully, the programme's ~~of~~ administry contacted Clara: she will have arrived in the University of Spain by the next week. That straight forward message has made Clara's day. ~~She~~ Fortunately, she will have had a rewarding experience in Spain.
