Task 4.
Paragraph 2.

The title read, "Texas holdem team recruitment. Be in our element." Although Oliver had a strong background in probability and statistics, he had only played poker once in a blue moon. "I like this game. If I had devoted more time to it in my college days, I probably would have been a pro by now." The final straw was the ~~promise~~ appealing promise of backing, which meant risk minimization.

Paragraph 4.

"I've been working this pathetic job for so long. Heck, I am struggling to make ends meet. Now, not only am I presented with the opportunity to change my environment, but the money is there too. My intellectual curiosity has to be satisfied and my brain craves for novelty," he reasoned. Oliver's inner voice ~~grew~~ by and large until eventually it subsided was growing and he fell asleep.

Paragraph 6.

Oliver was reluctant at first. A man with a posh accent argued that Oliver had to take advantage of his intellectual ability. After a few rounds of persuasion, Oliver cut it off, "You keep repeating the same things. I wish I could join you, but I'm afraid my finances are too constraint for that." However, his objection was met by the offer of the initial allowance. Oliver ended up signing the contract.

Task 5.

- 1) A busybody is someone that is too preoccupied with ~~others~~ others' business and is prone to gossiping.
- 2) To be poised to do something means to be well prepared to perform some action, perhaps anticipating a signal.
- 3) To agree to disagree — to finish the clash of the opposing views without a definitive conclusion or determining the winners.
- 4) Sluggish is an adjective that means slow or stalled, often carrying the "frustratingly slow" connotation.
- 5) To pan out means to allow the ^{bigger} ~~big~~ picture or outcome to be seen. Initially, you don't know how many small ideas will pan out.

Task 6.

1) Never had she experienced such pressure before.

2) I should have told you earlier.

3) It was his honesty that impressed me.

4) Had she known the truth, she would have reacted differently.

5) The plan was believed to be unrealistic.

6) Although he was exhausted, he kept working.

7) ~~It was such a complicated task that only~~
~~only a few completed.~~

It was such complicated task that only a few completed.
