"Reduce speed now"

Nowdays, thousands of people get in traffic accidents every day. It happens mostly because of drivers not following the rules. On a high speed, driver has no time to react if somebody is crossing the road, or a car can suddenly lose control.

There is an easy solution to all these problems just don't be in an endless hurry, drive safe. I think we should put some banners with "REDUCE SPEED NOW" written on it in some active areas like school zones, so drivers will see it, and follow the speed limit.
