Task 4.

2) Oliver had never been in one's element before the day he received an email. If he had been on his lowest he would have barely believed in his success once in a blue moon.

The final straw of the situation was finding the reasons of saying "yes" to the opportunity. It was too difficult for him that is why Oliver's decision was asking his friends for some advises.

4) He had been revolving in his bed for seven hours but still could not fall asleep. He knew that he would make ends meet if he did not do anything to make his life more comfortable and reduce phreic sides. Oliver was thinking by and large time but chose to agree the attend, he decided to take a risk for his life to be wonderful. Oliver needed to go to the office he knew nothing about. He thought it would be a place full of rude people in strict uniform. He was afraid he will not fit in this society.

b) After a few days being in the office Oliver ~~reali~~ realised that he could stay on his previous stable position and his life would be much easier. This job was reluctant but people there were awful. "They are always saying that I am a poor boy with no brain!" - Oliver said once, being upset after a long hard day. But the truth was that Oliver took advantage of all these people because he had much more - a big loving heart.
