Paragraph 2.

She's been thinking about this message endlessly. Studying felt like torture; Clara turned a blind eye on her books, constantly dwelling on the intrusive thoughts at the back of her mind. "Sooner or later they'd give me a try!" ^① she thought. ~~After all, if school was to suggest such a thing, she would have had to be the first one invited.~~ ^② After all, ^③ if school was to suggest such a thing, she would have had to be the first one invited.

Paragraph 6.

"I must've been less straight forward! I should've taken the offer down!" - Clara ranted as she wondered through the school halls. She was not all wrong. She ~~would've~~ wouldn't have been neglected if she declined the offer. However, she also wouldn't have received such a rewarding opportunity in the first place. Sometimes community should be taken for granted in order to allow possibilities to sink in.
