Task 4.

Paragraph 2.

These forty-eight hours were some of the most stressing ones in her life. She was conflicted whenever this invite has been created for someone like her. Clara thought: "If I accept this, would I be punished in any way?" At the back of her mind, these thoughts ~~squirmed like worms~~ ^{resided}, yet she decided to turn a blind eye on this "mistake" for an hour. Sooner or later, she will decide.

Paragraph 4.

Of course, this did sadden Clara, as she never wanted to be talked about this way. Such hectic comments made the girl on the verge of impulsively accepting the offer. "This is my place then!" — Clara exclaimed in her head — "Precisely, just mine!" And so after doing her school homework in one go, which had never happened before, she had confirmed her interest in this programme.

Paragraph 6

Yet ~~there~~ there was an opportunity ~~ahead~~ ^{that she will have} to ~~experience~~ ^{experienced} experience. ~~Clara's~~ ^{Her} exchange programme allowed her to visit a place that previously Clara took for granted — Canada. After settling in, she got to a welcoming school and made some new friends there. Many were straightforward that it must have been hard for Clara back then, but it did not matter, as the programme was proven to be rewarding.
