Task 8.

2. Reduce speed now.

You might see this advertisement near the roads where you can usually notice a lot of cars.

The advertisement might refer to the drivers of these cars, because a lot of them often do not ~~may~~ pay any attention to the speed limits and drive faster than they should. Because of that, they might hit a person crossing the road. This also includes motorbike users, but they are usually easier to notice.

These people might take the advertisement into consideration in order not to harm other people on the roads.
