Task 4. Paragraph 2. That day Oliver had been already home after a long shift. As soon as he came ~~he realised~~ to his place, he realised: if he had ~~a last chance~~ had a last chance to change his life he would have taken it right now. When his phone rang, he didn't mention it. Then - an e-mail from a stranger. "~~Dear Oliver, we looked through your resume and want you to take part in the interview tomorrow.~~"

Paragraph 4. It was a final straw.

Paragraph 4. "Dear Oliver, we looked through your resume and want you to take part in the interview. Contact us". For a moment he thought: "I've been making ends meet for years, I don't want to live like this anymore." It sounded pathetic but yes, he was very ashamed of his poor situation and himself as well. From the small office clerk to the middle-marketing specialist in fin-tech startup - a dream, isn't it?

Paragraph 6. His boss offered more than 4 thousand dollars. "You can refuse of course" - he said. Oliver felt really uncomfortable to sit between those posh guys in white shirts and ~~white~~ ^{expensive} suits.

"Why are they staring at me? Am I that bad?" - he "overthought. But yes, Oliver accepted the offer and decided to take advantage of the situation he has been in. And finally, Oliver ~~could not help but~~ won - he won a new life, that he could never have.

Task 5. The busy body - a person with very active lifestyle who tries to do every task in advance and is also annoying sometimes.

To be poised to do something - an action that requires waiting to do or to complete something.
