Task 4

Paragraph 2

Had it been an offer from any other business organization, Oliver would have rejected it without any hesitation. He was requested to be in the team's element as a graphic designer. The final straw was the fact that although he built his ^{machinery} career ~~in~~ ~~the~~ ~~eng~~ ~~machinery~~, he was an amateur painter. ~~but~~ was ~~terrified~~ of. If he hadn't received it, he probably wouldn't have questioned his purpose ^{in life}. However such requests ~~are~~ ^{were} being sent once in a blue moon.

Task 4

Paragraph 2

Before the email ~~had been~~^{was} sent, Oliver had had a gut feeling^{about} that day. He was requested to be in ~~the~~ business company's element as a graphic designer. The final straw was the fact that although he had succeeded in his chemistry career, he was an amateur painter and worshiped it. If he hadn't received the offer, he wouldn't have questioned his purpose in life. However such requests were being sent once in a blue moon.

Paragraph 4

Oliver couldn't close his eyes. 'I am a pathetic overthinker,' he repeated all over again.

Had it been an offer from any other organisation, he would have rejected it without any hesitation. However his hidden desire he ~~was~~^{was} pushing away and by and large the most precious dream finally had a chance to become real. In the morning he decided he might at least visit ~~at that~~
~~into~~ that interview.

Paragraph 6

67 words

Within a month Oliver accepted the offer and quit his previous job. 'Why am always ~~am~~ avoiding risks? I could have switched my career path a decade ago,' ~~Why am I like this this?~~ said Oliver to his girlfriend while eating beef in a posh place. 'Don't blame yourself. I am also reluctant to get rid of stable life,' she responded. One thing is coherent: it is never late to take advantage of opportunities that might have been forgotten.
