Task 8

2) Reduce speed now

"Reduce speed now" is an advertisement, that can be seen both in parks and other public places.

This advertisement might refer to such habits as a never-ending hurry just to be on time. Furthermore, this advertisement also means the shortness of one's existence, because they have a lot to do and it is highly important to remember the meaning of the life.

The people might take this advertisement into consideration, because it hyronically reminds about the importance of the rest, that all people need.
