Paragraph 2

That offer was something that only could have happened once in a blue moon. For Oliver, who has been working quietly for years, that unique opportunity has become a final straw. It led him to start thinking about his life and his job, which on the one hand made him feel unimportant and bored, while on the other hand, made him feel in his element.

Paragraph 4

As the days went by, Oliver's desire to try to apply for the job was growing. Not only did he want to stop being pathetic, but also ~~desired~~ longed for a job that helps him to make the ends meet. By and large Oliver was thinking over the offer and even has been working on a list of advantages and disadvantages of the offer while doing so.

Paragraph 6

After working in his new office for some time, Oliver ~~now~~ wishes that he could return to the past and change his decision. His new colleagues were push and arrogant. They were always reluctant to help Oliver. These colleagues are always behaving in a rude way and take advantage of Oliver by giving him their extra work. After all, Oliver should have thought of the price of this chance.
