Task 4

Paragraph 2:

Although Clara had doubts about the exchange programme she decided to turn a blind eye on it. She thought that sooner or later the mistake would be revealed and everything would go on as usual. Moreover, no preparation steps for an assignment have been done yet. ~~At~~ However, at the back of her mind a voice kept saying: "If it had been a mistake, I would know about it, wouldn't I?"

Paragraph 4

Clara did try to tell herself that she had participated in many educational programmes and sites, but whenever the slightest chance of self-im provement appeared, she just couldn't resist so on the verge of that hectic feeling, she applied to the exchange programme. She had no idea that the desire to do something in one go, without thoroughly thinking, would change her life so much.

Paragraph 6

She thought: "By the time the term ends the rumours will have grown everywhere. I must have made a mistake!" Later, Clara overheard her straightforward teacher talking about her. "I assure you she will go there. She doesn't take studying for granted and she knows that if you pursue your goals, even the path to them may be rewarding". Oh, how Clara thanked that teacher later!
