Task 4

A: Peter! Hello, how are you doing?

B: Please don't ask me that. I'm not in the mood today.

A: Pardon me, but how is your son Platon? My daughter wants to play with him on the playground.

B: Platon is doing well, but he is prohibited from playing on the playground.

A: Prohibited? What did he do?

B: Platon hides and when kids come by, he jumps and scares them.

A: Poor kids! I can teach Platon some manners.

B: Perfect! We can scare next Saturday.

Task 8

1. "Breakfasts are now being served"

~~_____~~

You might see the advertisement next to a café or a restaurant, but you can also see the advertisement on a busy tourist street.

The advertisement might refer to the customers or potential customers to inform them ~~_____~~ that they can now order breakfasts in the morning.

The person or people might take it into consideration the advertisement because not all cafés and restaurants offer breakfasts and the person or people might want to eat some breakfast food and not ordinary food served for supper or dinner.
