Paragraph 2

At first, Clara decided to turn a blind eye to the irritation she assumed ~~was~~ was not intended for her, but still kept it in the back of her mind. Much to her discomfort, even though she had plenty of time to make up her mind, the offer was going to expire sooner or later, so Clara needed to find ~~out~~ more information.

about the mysterious programme.

Paragraph 4

When Clara came home that day, she was stressed out and on the verge of tears. She has already been doing a lot of hectic schoolwork, and the programme would only take it up a notch. After doing all the thinking and decision making in one go, Clara ultimately did it and accepted the offer, preventing any other students in her school from doing so.

Paragraph 6

In the end, Clara really enjoyed the exchange programme, but making friends in a foreign country wasn't was not as straightforward as she thought it would be. Clara decided that that she ~~is not going to take her social~~ will not be taking her social circle for granted anymore, because this ^{exchange programme} ~~trip~~ was not rewarding enough to compensate for the loss of her friends, and that she must not have accepted the offer to begin with.
