You might see the advertisements in various cafes and restaurants which offer special breakfasts. You might also come across it in places of living such as camps, hotels, sanatoriums and so on.

The advertisement refers to potential visitors of the places.

People might take ~~into~~ it into consideration because many people are white collar workers and constantly in a rush nowadays. People need energy to work hard but they lack time to prepare breakfasts for themselves. It becomes evident that it is more convenient to enjoy the meal in a cafe than desperately waiting for the lunch time.
