Task 4

Paragraph 2

Oliver was offered to star in a new movie called "The final straw". He couldn't believe his eyes as he had never taken part in such kind of a project. Actually, acting was in Oliver's element. If he had been braver, he wouldn't have followed his parents' advice on becoming a lawyer. Once in a blue moon Oliver auditioned for some minor roles but it wasn't successful.

Paragraph 4

By and large Oliver was thinking: "I have been working in the court for five years, how can I leave everything new?" Had it not been his dream, he would never accept ~~such an intriguing~~ ^{this} offer. Oliver also remembered that he hardly managed to make ends meet. He should come to a particular place to discuss all the details of future work but being pathetic he was in two minds about this.

Paragraph 6

That evening while Oliver was talking to the creator of the project, he felt headache. "Why is this always happening when I am busy?" complained Oliver. They discussed post, the decorations, ~~the~~ actors and even his career prospects. When the meeting was over, Oliver was reluctant to ~~leave~~ go but had to. On the way home he was thinking only that he could have taken some steps to become an actor ~~much~~ earlier.
