Reduce speed now

This may be a social advertisement with the purpose of reminding people not to drive too fast in the certain areas.

It can be seen on the roads near schools or kindergartens. Its goal is to tell drivers to lower their speed, so as not to get into an accident. Motorists should think over the note because it makes them think of possible consequences, that high speed may incur

So, this advertisement can be frequently noticed on the roads and it is a great way of warning people.
