Task 4

Paragraph 2

Clara knew that this group could be fake but her sister Ann tried to turn a blind eye and explain Clara how lucky she is. Clara's mind has been fulfilled with different tasks for the whole week. Sooner or later, some thing stroke at the back of her mind and she finally believed Ann, "I ~~will~~ will participate in it, my future career would be amazing" - thought Clara.

Paragraph 4

This conversation seemed rude and hectic to Clara. On the verge of her anger she did some terrible things to discourage other participants. Clara told them that this programme isn't worth it as well as chances of taking the offer are extremely low. As a result, most of the students denied their applies. As everyone had cancelled the offer Clara sent her CV in one go.

Paragraph 6.

However, she had to finish it. "My previous actions must be rewarding, there is no turning back" - said Clara. She came straight forward to the programme manager. "By the end of the next month you will have studied in a different country!" - he told her. Clara took for granted her offer, though, she definitely didn't deserve it and will someday pay for her lies.

Task 5
